Change

You walked into my life
As if there were no walls,
My cracky heart, one beat
Before you're gone

You made me see this world
In ways I've never seen,
One feather hit the stone
Before its flown

You told me: Live your life
Like you had never done,
A mystery for sure
You were the one

I hear the music now
So I will dance,
Oh yeah
Oh no

I will fly
